Meeting called to order at 6:45 by President Arlon Gilliland. Arlon thanked everyone for the good food and welcomed 2 new members, Heather Haugland and Diane Kemp.

Urban Renewal Loan Application-More paperwork is required by loan company for our dry rot and Wheelchair accessibility project.

Grants-Cathy Butterfield put us on a list for a grant that is available at US Bank.

Spring Classes-We are working on the schedule (all classes 1-4 unless noted otherwise)

Mon.-Polymer Clay with Jeanne

Tues. Open

Wed.-Water media with Arlon Gilliland

Thurs.- Member guided classes

Fri.-A.M. Jan Miller-Open Studio Mosaics plus Mosaics 1-4

Sat.- Open Studio(Arlon will talk to Sharon)

Sun. Acrylics with Vi

Jan Miller will advertise for new teachers in the Oregon Coast Today, The News Guard and the News Times. Melanie Kite will look into a possible teacher through Hall's Office Supply. Maybe some of the co op people would be interested in teaching. Let Arlon know.

Annual ASA Member art show May 28-Start thinking about it.

Summer workshops-Arlon will make contacts. Recommended having $5 donations to be made to ASA for these classes. These are free classes to give back to the community as a non profit group.

ASA art wall will be changed March 16 at 10 a.m. All work must come down to be replaced with new pieces. Please record your work in our ledger when it goes up and when it is sold or removed. Melanie Kite made a motion to charge 10% commission of original price to go to ASA. Seconded by Vi Holland. Motion passed.

Diane Kemp- made a suggestion that we send a welcome e mail telling rights and responsibilities to new members. Volunteered to update our e mail list. Thank you so much.

Office clean up party-Organize and sort this summer. Arlon will label things to recycle or get rid of.

ASA cleaning sign up sheet-Please sign up for a day a month to keep our studio clean if you haven't already done so.

Fundraiser ideas -Christmas Bazaar? Make small, crafty items. Halloween Bazaar? Think about these and come up with other ideas.

Melanie Kite –announced that she and Dave will be moving to Sand Point, Idaho. They will be missed as important contributors to our group.

Meeting closed at 7:40 by President Arlon Gilliland

Respectfully submitted,
Secretary, Norma Bruncke
